A few days ago Charlie Fromm, a little boy about ter years of age, and son of Mr. Ch. Fromm, of this place, accidentally cut an artery in his thigh with a pocket-knife. The wound was dressed by physiciars, but broke out two or three times, and on Wednesday at noon the physicians found it necessary to perform an operation to take up the artery, under which the patient died. The hereavid family have the sympathy of the community in their affliction. The Catholics of our town have given out a conir. it to Mr. John Kaufman for the building of a church building 60 by 34 feet, with a seating capacity of about 400. The McDuffing will be creeted on their lot on McDuffin street, and when completed will be a nest and substantial structure. Work will be commenced on it in the course of a week or two and finished by the 25th December. It will cost about $3,000 in all. Maj. George A. Wagener, the junior member of the firm of F. W. Wagener & F. It is our sad duty this weak to record the Mrs. Samuel E. Craig, which occurred or Friday last of diphtheria. The farmers of Edgefield County have organized a Planters' Protective Association, the object of which is to extirpate and stamp out the illegal and dishonest trafic in seed cotton. An executive committee, consisting of one member from each township, is canvassing for members, and will offer a reward of one hundred dollars for proof to convict any person or persons of violating the law regulating the sale of seed cotton. This is a wise move on the part of the Edge field farmers, and we would be pleased to see similar organizations formed in other counties of the State. The trafic in seed cotton after night has been and is yet a great annoyance to the farming interests in many sections of the State, and by all means should be stopped wherever pracborn have been formally nominated by the Radicals of Pickens County for the Legis-lature. The Sentinel has this to say about their politics and their chances of success: "Mr. Lesley has been a Republican ever since the organization of his party in this State, and held the office of County Treasurer during the ascendancy of that party in the State. He stuck close to the fortunes of Chamberlain in 1876-77, and only surrendered in the last ditch. Col. Welborn claims to be a Democrat, but has never cooperated with the party in the County. He ran for the office of County Commissioner as an Independent candidate in 1870. and was overwhelmingly defeated. Against the personal character of these gentlemen we have nothing to say. We believe they are both honest outside of their politics, and regret they occupy the position they Their defeat is as sure as the 2nd day of November arrives."

Anderson County Republicans. The Republicans of Anderson County are

eing reorganized to vote for William R. Parker for the Legislature once more. They meet in Convention on Monday, the 30th inst., at this place, to send delegates to Columbia. There would be nothing in this proceeding worthy of mention except for the fact that William R. Parker, the colored County Chairman, who professes to be a preacher, is the most active man in stirring up the organization, after having repeatedly expressed his disgust with the Republican party, and said positively that he would not have anything to do with poli-tics in this campaign. He is a fair sample of Republican truthfulness. There is, how-ever, one corrolation in this case—the Re-publicans in this County are not strong enough to interest us. It is a farce for them to attempt a fight in this County, and any effort made to get up an excitement on the subject here will be a factious and malicious opposition to the cause of good government better and more intelligent colored men are tired of the useless fight. They are better fact that he does not know how to tell the

The old Council met on Monday morning and after the transaction of some unimportant business dissolved, whereupon John C. Whitefield, Esq., administered the oath of office to Mr. G. F. Tolly, Intendant. Mr. Tolly then administered the oath to Messrs. J. D. Maxwell, D. S. Taylor, E. F. Murrah and W. W. Keys, Wardens.

The following officers were then elected: Chief Marshal—Capt. Joseph R. Fant. Assistant Marshal—W. D. Maroney.

Clerk—Capt. T. C. Ligon. The salary of the Chief Marshal was fixed at $550 with house rent additional, and that noneys received and 21 cents on all paid out, and $1.25 cost in the case of each and every party convicted before the Council for violations of the peace of the town.

Licenses for selling spirituous and malt liquors were fixed at the same prices and on the same terms as heretofore, viz: prices for spirituous and malt liquors, $100; malt liquors only, $50. Terms—one-half cash, the remainder to be secured by note, with interest, payable 1st November. A motion was passed requiring the marshals to provide themselves with uniforms, at a cost not to exceed $25. The annual report of the Clerk was or-dered published in the INTELLIGENCER.

The Council met on Tuesday afternoon at the usual hour, and after trying several parties for breaking the peace of the town and levying fines to the amount of $0, granted ses to sell spirituous and mais liquors to Messrs. John O'Donnell, John McGrath W. Ira Drennan and M. D. Kennedy.

She is an excellent ady, and is remarkably hale and vigorous for one so advanced in years ..... There are three hundred and fifty acres of fine cleared bottom on Little Beaverdam Creek, in this township, which for several years have been unfit for cultivation, caused by inundation resulting from the very slight fall in the stream and the filling of Roof's mill pond just below with sediment. An agreement was recently effected between Mr. Roof and the owners of the land by which the dam is to be torn away permanently for the sum of $1,500. This is a great relief to those interested in the land, and we may expect to see ere long broad acres of fine corn, where now is an almost impenetrable bog. Bishop's Branch. A party of fifteen or sixteen young ladies and gentlemen left here a few days ago quite early on a tour to Fort Hill. At Pendleton they received some happy addition to the party in the shape of young men and watermelons, all of which were very much enjoyed. On they went with merry laughter, as if a prize were to be awarded to the one who made the loudest noise, until presently they found themselves driving through the beautiful green-carpeted and cedar-shaded lawn, on which our beloved statesman, the late John C. Calhoun, spent many pleasant hours a few years since. The plan of the well, garden, vineyard, orchard and, in fact, all the surroundings the part of those who engage in it. The show that no pains have been spared to make the place both convenient and attractired of the useless light. They are neuter protected and more prosperous now than they were under Republicanism, and therefore have no disposition to return to it. They cannot be made dupes of any longer. All that Parker can accomplish in this fight.

All that Parker can accomplish the thirty are not encumbered with matters are the fortune lies. The upland is not as good as that of our own community. Calhoun was a man of social disposition. Often, when not encumbered with matters are the controlled to the form of the property of the controlled to the form of the property of the controlled to the form of the property of the proper tive. The broad expanse of waving corn will be to more thoroughly establish the of State, would he be found sitting around the fireside engaged in conversation with his family and many friends. The excur-sionists never having seen him, were very anxious to see his portrait and library, but they did not enjoy this pleasure. We saw nothing of the interior of the habitation, which is in a dilapidated condition, though once a magnificent house. Next we visited the junction of the Keowee and Twelve-Mile Rivers. The former, on account of having its source among the mountains and the scarcity of cultivated lands on its banks, is always clear; while the latter, acting as a drain for many cultivated acres, is always muddy. The line of distinction between these waters can easily be detected an eighth of a mile below the confinence-the clear of the Assistant Marshal at $500. The Clerk's salary was continued at the same as Crawford's cotton, a sumptuous dinner on the river, and Mr. B. C. Crawford's excellent corn, encouraged the pleasure seekers to extend their excursion to the Twelve-Mite House, which was the residence of John E. Calhoun, and with it they were delighted. They were conducted to the top of the house and were entertained with distant scenery as long as the heat of the sun would admit. The party then returned home after having spent a most pleasant day.....Our Grange has again been aroused from its weeks of slumber, and we are looking forward to cuccess. Several young ladies will be initiated soon, which we hope will encourage the young men to join us. .....The Connor Light Dragoons are making ready for the approaching campaign.
